Songbooks come alive on screen! Simply download and launch the free VideoBook app, then hold your mobile device over the front cover to play a charming animated music video featuring children's favorite songs. Follow along in the illustrated board book with your little one and enjoy reading, watching, and singing together! A free song download is also included with each book. The VideoBook app and sing-along books are special because:

- Singing develops language and literacy skills
- Turning pages and handling a mobile device builds coordination
- Multisensory reading experiences help little ones learn
